mid April to mid October. The garden is large so plenty of room for kids to play games or picnic. There is a low wall at the bottom of the garden so care must be taken so small children are not left unattended. For dining, there is a table underneath the shading canopy of the vine-covered pergola to eat or relax on a sunlounger, the terrace of the master bedroom also offers another shaded spot to eat and relax. The parking area has room for several cars behind secure gates.
